MONTHLY REPORT

1. GDC Nowshera organises special programme in connection with Gandhi Jayanti

On 1 Oct. 2026, GDC Nowshera, in collaboration with the Rumalidhara Battalion of the Indian Army, organised a special programme in connection with Gandhi Jayanti. The programme was held under the guidance of Principal Prof. Mohd. Sadeeq with the objective of acquainting students with the life and ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and sensitising them towards the importance of non-violence, cleanliness, self-reliance and a drug-free society.

At the outset, Mr. Praghat Singh, Indian Army, addressed the gathering and highlighted the significance of Gandhi Jayanti and the relevance of Gandhian values in contemporary society. He emphasised the principles of truth, non-violence, discipline and responsible citizenship. A video depicting the life, struggles and contributions of Mahatma Gandhi was also screened for the students.

Lieutenant Sharvani Vibhute delivered an informative lecture on Khadi and cleanliness, highlighting their significance in promoting self-reliance, dignity of labour, personal hygiene and social responsibility.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. Shahida Nawaz, HoD Urdu, who also delivered the Vote of Thanks. She expressed gratitude to the Indian Army team, the Principal, faculty members and students for their valuable participation and cooperation.

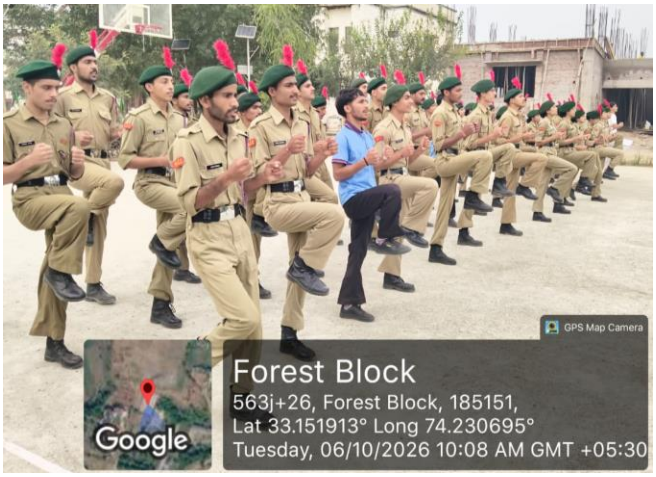

2. GDC Nowshera Conducts NCC Training on Drill and FC/BC

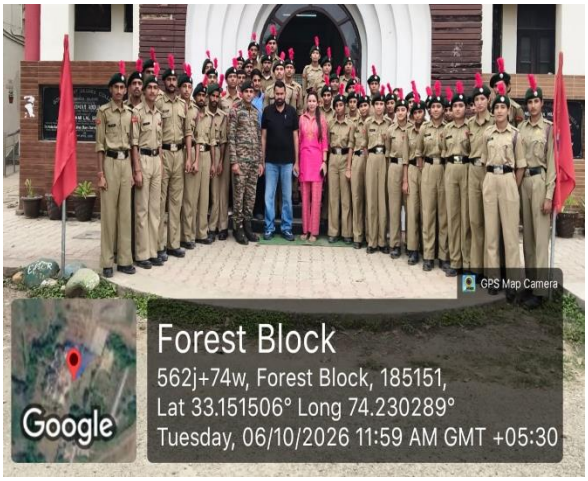

On 6 Oct. 2026, GDC Nowshera conducted NCC training session on Drill and Field Craft & Battle Craft (FC/BC) for NCC cadets under the guidance of the worthy Principal, Prof. Mohd. Sadeeq. The session was conducted by Hav. Manzoor Ahmed, PI Staff from 5 JK BN NCC Poonch, and coordinated by CTO Prof. Deepika Bali. A total of 51 NCC cadets, comprising 24 Senior Division (SD) and 27 Senior Wing (SW) cadets, participated in the session.

The session commenced with drill practice, where cadets were trained in various drill movements and commands with emphasis on correct posture, coordination, discipline and precision. Hav. Manzoor Ahmed highlighted the role of drill in developing confidence, teamwork and discipline among cadets.

Following the drill, Hav. Manzoor Ahmed delivered a detailed lecture on Field Craft and Battle Craft (FC/BC). He explained its significance in NCC training and familiarised the cadets with important aspects such as observation, judging distance, camouflage and concealment, field signals, movement in the field, and effective use of ground and cover. He also stressed the importance of alertness, situational awareness and teamwork in field situations.

The session provided a valuable blend of practical drill training and theoretical knowledge of FC/BC. The cadets participated enthusiastically and gained useful skills and knowledge, making the training session highly informative and beneficial.

3. International Day of the Girl Child Celebrated at GDC Nowshera

On 10 Oct. 2026, GDC Nowshera celebrated International Day of the Girl Child as part of the Nasha Mukt Bharat Abhiyaan, 100 Weeks Campaign on the theme “Empowering Young Women Against Substance Abuse.” under the guidance of the Principal, Prof. Mohd. Sadeeq, with the active involvement of the Women Empowerment Cell, convened by Prof. Monisha Bandhu of the Department of English. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of substance abuse and the vital role of young women in building a healthy, drug-free society.

Dr. Shahida Nawaz, Head of the Department of Urdu, delivered a lecture on the theme, highlighting the importance of empowering young women to resist peer pressure, make informed decisions, and stay away from drugs and other forms of substance abuse. She emphasised the role of education, self-confidence, awareness, and family and community support in preventing addiction. She also encouraged students to spread awareness about the dangers of substance abuse and contribute actively towards creating a safe and drug-free society.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Romani Gupta who expressed gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, and students for their support and participation.

4. GDC Nowshera Organises Awareness Session on Voluntary Blood Donation On the theme: "One Drop of Humanity, Give Blood, Save Lives"

On 13 Oct. 2026, GDC Nowshera organised an awareness session on Voluntary Blood Donation Day in collaboration with ADC Nowshera, under the theme "One Drop of Humanity, Give Blood, Save Lives." The programme aimed to sensitise students about the importance of voluntary blood donation and inspire them to contribute towards saving precious human lives.

Capt. Sowpamika R. Nair, Medical Officer, served as the resource person and delivered an informative awareness lecture on the significance of voluntary blood donation. She highlighted how a single act of blood donation can save lives, particularly during medical emergencies, surgeries and other critical healthcare situations. She also addressed common misconceptions regarding blood donation and encouraged students to promote a culture of voluntary blood donation and humanitarian service.

The programme commenced with an introduction and welcome address by Prof. Yogesh Sharma, Convener, Red Ribbon Club, who emphasised the importance of creating awareness among young people and fostering a spirit of compassion, social responsibility and community service. Around 80 students including NSS volunteers and faculty members participated in the session, reflecting the college community's commitment to health awareness and social welfare.

At the conclusion of the programme, all participants took a pledge on voluntary blood donation, reaffirming their commitment to spreading awareness about the importance of donating blood and encouraging others to support this noble humanitarian cause.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Mohd. Zeeshaan, NSS Programme Officer, who expressed gratitude to the resource person, college administration, faculty members, students and NSS volunteers for their valuable contribution to the successful conduct of the programme.

5. GDC Nowshera Organises Awareness Programme on Dowry System in Collaboration with DHEW and DALSA

On 15 Oct. 2026, GDC Nowshera organised an awareness programme on the social evil of the dowry system in collaboration with the District Hub for Empowerment of Women (DHEW) and the District Legal Services Authority (DALSA), under the able guidance of the worthy Principal, Prof. Mohd. Sadeeq. The programme was coordinated by Prof Priyanka Kumari, HOD, Department of Hindi, with the aim of sensitising students about the harmful effects of dowry and promoting gender equality, women's rights and empowerment.

The programme commenced with a welcome address by Prof. Shahida Nawaz, who warmly welcomed the resource persons and highlighted the importance of organising awareness programmes to educate students about prevailing social issues and encourage positive change in society.

Ms. Jyoti Sharma from DHEW, while addressing the gathering, highlighted the harmful effects of the dowry system on women, families and society. She also explained the concept of Stridhan, its distinction from dowry and the legal rights of women over their Stridhan. She emphasised the importance of education, awareness and changing traditional attitudes to eliminate discriminatory practices and promote women's dignity and empowerment.

Ms. Shweta Sharma from DALSA delivered an informative lecture on the legal aspects of the dowry system. She acquainted the students with the provisions of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, and the legal rights and protections available to women against dowry-related harassment. She also encouraged students to spread awareness about the legal consequences of demanding or accepting dowry.

Students of GDC Nowshera such as Madhvi Sharma, Divyanshi, Atul Bhardawaj and Hardeep Kour, also delivered speeches on the dowry system and various related legal and social issues. They highlighted the harmful effects of dowry on women and society, the importance of legal awareness, women's rights and gender equality. Through their speeches, they emphasised the need to eradicate this social evil and encouraged everyone to contribute towards building a dowry-free society. Their active participation reflected their awareness of social responsibilities and commitment to bringing positive change in society.

At the conclusion of the programme, Principal Prof. Sadeeq Ahmed emphasized the importance of legal literacy and awareness among students. He encouraged them to understand their legal rights and duties and to become responsible citizens who contribute positively to society.
