DEPARTMENT PROFILE

About the Department: The Department of Political Science has been established in 2008. It aims at building an academic community of students, researchers and teachers devoted to an open, critical, and analytical study of the discipline with an emphasis on the inter-disciplinary approach. It also aims at making courses work socially relevant and to develop in the students an awareness of the basic issues and problems in the discipline and to equip them intellectually to fulfil this need.

Mission and Vision of the Department: The political science program provides students with a broad-based political education that is grounded in the field's theoretical traditions. This includes a strong background in the fundamental branches of our discipline: Indian Government and Politics, Political Theory, Western Political Thought, Comparative Politics, International Relations, Politics of J & K. Political science is fundamental to help students understand and act more effectively in the world.
